THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Milan C. Miskovsky, Esquire
Shoreham Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mike:

Thank you for your phone call on the occasion of my new appointment. I would have written sooner, but I had to await the completion of the confirmation and swearing-in processes in order to be "legal."

I have always prized the friendship and association between us. You have provided an awful lot of good counsel over the years and I want to continue that friendship in order to gain the benefit of your advice and views as we move into the future. I think that future will be a good and constructive one. Problems will abound, but I think they will be outnumbered by the opportunities.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
